ROSSO FRESCO

ORIGIN	Long Island
VINTAGE	2020
COLOR	Red
WINE TYPE	Still wine

TASTING NOTE

Rosso Fresco is an easy-going red blend whose varieties and proportions change with each vintage. There are beautiful high-toned aromas and flavors of red cherry, red raspberry, red plum, red current, spice and earth. This dry red wine is medium bodied, has moderate (12%) alcohol, balanced acid, very soft, silky tannins and a juicy persistent finish.

PRODUCER

Channing Daughters is situated on a beautiful plot of land in Bridgehampton, Long Island. With twenty-eight acres of vines, a small winery and tasting room, the team grows and creates wines from over two dozen varieties. With a commitment to care of the vines and the quality of wine in the bottle, winemaking methods remain traditional and artisanal. Channing Daughters is proud to produce wines bearing all three Long Island AVAs and they allow the wines to naturally express the earth that grows them to celebrate the place, vineyards and region from which they produce wine.

RECOMMENDATION

Rosso Fresco is a playful, full-flavored, fun, friendly red wine that pairs well with pastas and just about any fish, fowl or four-legged food you serve with it.
