

AMBROSIA ILE DE BEAUTE ROSE

The Romans and Greeks nicknamed her Kalliste, the most beautiful. The French call it "the island of Beauty".

A true miniature continent, Corsica sits in the middle of the Mediterranean Sea. An environment that makes Corsica, a land of contrast and character where climate, geography and history combine to form a terroir and exceptional products.

The Phocaeans were not mistaken. From the sixth century BCE, they introduced on the side of Aléria, the cultivation of the vine and wine.

Bequeathing more than 2600 years of wine heritage to The Cave D'Aléria.

Terroir: Coastal, sedimentary and silico-clay plateau

Grape varieties: Cinsault

Tasting: All in lace, with a beautiful tension that brings gluttony and freshness.

A basket of fresh fruit and a beautiful citrus note in the finish gives length and accuracy to this mythical cuvée.

Association: To be enjoyed alone as an aperitif but also with the dishes of the sea, raw or cooked or fresh salads.

Serve between 8 and 10°C
Consume within 18 months

