SUPPLE AND FLESHY RED WINE

Beaujolais

TASTING NOTES

Visual: Limpid red colour with grenadine-purple glints.

Nose: Fresh, focused bouquet of red berries (wild strawberry, raspberry, redcurrant).

Palate: Ample and profound with suave tannins, giving an attractive and pleasing arrangement. Retro-olfaction gives floral notes (peony) and spice (white pepper).

WINE AND FOOD PAIRING

To accompany dishes such as charcuterie, grilled poultry, red meat, mature cheeses or even desserts with red fruit. For family occasions we typically serve it with braised filet mignon accompanied by new potatoes.

Serving temperature: 14-16° C.

WINEMAKING AND MATURING

Grape variety: Gamay.

Vinification: Manual harvesting followed by triple sorting: in the vineyard, on loading and at reception. Traditional winemaking with semi-carbonic maceration.

Maturing: In tanks in order to capture the aromas.

THE TERROIR

This Regional Appellation covers some 6,000 hectares of vineyards from the south of Mâcon down to the very gates of Lyon. It comprises a patchwork of different terroirs: granite soils in the north, silica in the centre and limestone rock in the area known as Pierres Dorées.

DID YOU KNOW?

Beaujolais is officially part of Greater Burgundy, the winemaking region. Its name goes back to the lords of Beaujeu who occupied the region until 1400.

Red Beaujolais represents 97% of the volume of wine produced with the AOC Beaujolais label.

The legendary little knight character that appears on our bottles and on all our branding truly captures the essence of La Burgondie. Courageous, confident and loyal. We are a forward-thinking, like-minded group of individuals who are fiercely proud of our Burgundian roots, our beautiful region and our wines. Passion, solidarity and centuries of expertise has brought us together in a collective effort to bring you the best that our beautiful region has to offer. Our wines, produced using environmentally-friendly farming methods, are evocative of our hard-working co-operative-winemaker families who give their all, and have done so for generations. It's our way of life in a glass.
