LE TRIPORTEUR - IGP VAUCLUSE PRINCIPAUTÉ D'ORANGE ROUGE

2021

The Triporteur is a humorous movie made in 1957 by Jacques Pinoteau. This film revealed Darry Cowl, a comic, in a role of a candid man who rides his tricycle to Nice to attend the final of the French Football Cup to support his village. As the film, this wine invites you to a "French" way of a friendly and festive life. This wine is an IGP Vacluse "Principauté d'Orange" coming from the old territory of the Princes of Orange (1230-1793), in more confined area than straight IGP Vacluse.

TERROIR

Clay and silicious. Coming from terroirs around Châteauneuf du Pape

GRAPE VARIETIES

Grenache 70% - Syrah, Caladoc, Carignan 30%

WINEMAKING

Traditional vinification in stainless tanks with destalking, 6 to 8 days fermentation, pumping over.
Controlled temperature at 26 to 28° C.

AGEING

9 months in concrete tanks to soften and to rounden the tannins.

TASTING NOTES

This wine has a red cherry colour with purple hints, an intense nose with cherry and black currant flavours and on the palate, notes of small sweet red fruits. It has a firm attack in mouth, supple and fruity this wine will be pleasant when drunk young.

TASTING ADVICES

To enjoy now or can be kept up to 2 - 3 years. Serve at 14°-16°C

FOOD PAIRINGS

It will be best with pizzas, sausages, grilled meats and generally with all type of Mediterranean cooking. This is typical "bistrot" wine, everyday wine.
