

La Mauvaise Réputation Cuvée Malbec

AOP Bordeaux

Red

“

Prohibition, a time when alcohol had a bad reputation and was responsible for all the evils. This is the case here on this label, where Smedley Butler, a safety officer, destroys barrels in Philadelphia. Are we not moving towards those coercive years?

Wine is a symbol of culture, of French savoir-vivre.

This cuvée represents the secrets of our ancestral grape varieties revealed by the expression of unique terroirs: those of Bordeaux. A culture, on these lands of clay and boulders, well controlled and a complicit climate make this Malbec extraordinary.

At a time of global warming, they have found their place in our vineyards and on our tables. ”

TASTING NOTES

The wine shows an intense red colour. The nose reveals notes of cherries, raspberries and spices. The palate is fresh and well-structured, supported by melted tannins. This cuvée is a nice and juicy expression of the Malbec
