A wine made in association with the winemaker Matthieu Cosse and the winegrowers Murielle and Bernard Marchand. Our philosophy is based on a careful and ultra-selective approach to the vineyard, illustrated by vinification in the vineyard. This approach allows us to accentuate the expression of our terroirs and to express its potential in an optimal way.

Bernard and Murielle Marchand have been winegrowers for as long as they can remember. Bernard started working in the vineyards in the vineyards in 1985 in Cognac. But it was in 2008 that he became the owner of Château Du Peuil.

Today, these passionate winegrowers are passing on the torch to their son, who will take over the business in a few years' time to continue the family tradition.

«It was important for us that our son took over the property. We hope that the tradition of the vineyard will continue for generations to come.»
