

CHATEAU D'ARCIE

Château D'Arcie 2020

AOP Saint-Emilion grand cru, Bordeaux, France

Château D'Arcie is slowly building a reputation as one of the best estates situated in the flat parts of the Appellation. The 40 year old vines are tended with respect for the environment and the wine is a perfect example of this most fashionable of Appellations at a price that won't break the bank.

ON THE PALATE

There is obvious sweet fruit which is very pure and deeply concentrated. It is elegant and refined with very typical Saint-Emilion characteristics.

FOOD PAIRINGS

This is a perfect partner for red meat, especially grilled pieces of beef, although it makes a good match for roast poultry.

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

90/100

Argent

"Intense, modern with high fruit concentration of black fruit, spice and a herbal leafy touch. High amount of fine grained tannins, very long and lingering."
